Iowa Wrestling Sponsorships

Two of Iowa's key sponsors are Cliff Keen Athletic and ASICS. The Hawkeye staff is proud and thankful to be associated with these two organizations, who provide the best in wrestling gear.

Cliff Keen Athletic is a wrestling and officials wear company, dedicated to the advancement of athletics through innovative products and communications. Cliff Keen Athletic exemplifies the rich traditions of sport and the superior quality of athletic wear required for holding up to the rigors of competition. The company was founded by the legendary University of Michigan wrestling coach of the same name in 1958. Keen coached the 1948 U.S. Olympic team and invented the wrestling head guard.

In 1949, Mr. Kihachiro Onitsuka began his athletic footwear company (Onitsuka Co., Ltd.) by manufacturing basketball shoes out of his living room in Kobe, Japan. He chose the name ASICS for his company in 1977, based on a famous Latin phrase "Anima Sana In Corpore Sano", which when translated expresses the ancient ideal of "A Sound Mind in a Sound Body." Taking the acronym of this phrase, ASICS was founded on the belief that the best way to create a healthy and happy lifestyle is to promote total health and fitness. ASICS® products were introduced to the United States in 1977.

Iowa also made another entry in the record books, setting the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 15,955 when it hosted Iowa State Dec. 6, 2008, at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa also set a national dual attendance record by average 9,014 fans in 2011-12.

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

HAWKEYE VISIONS

Hawkeye Visions is an on-going campaign, which seeks to build an endowment capable of covering the cost, via earnings, of UI student-athlete scholarships. The program currently includes almost 200 scholarships ranging from fully endowed scholarships, partially endowed, in development or scholarships pledged via an estate gift. The following scholarships were given for the specific benefit of Hawkeye Wrestling.

John and Ruth Beckman Wrestling Scholarship

The Beckman Wrestling Scholarship, along with similar scholarships for football and the Hawkeye Marching Band, was established in 1985 by the Beckmans. John worked for Hawkeye Castings, Inc. in Manchester, IA. He passed away in 1991. Ruth passed away in 2006.

John and Mary Ann Colloton Wrestling Scholarship

The Colloton Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1998 with a generous gift from longtime Hawkeye fans John and Mary Ann Colloton of Iowa City. John, who earned degrees from Loras College and the UI, was director of UI Hospitals and Clinics from 1971-93. He is the UI's Vice President Emeritus for Statewide Health Services and received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the UI in 1999. Mary Ann, a 1957 UI graduate, served as a staff nurse at the UIHC from 1957-63. The Collotons have also generously established scholarships benefitting football, men's basketball and women's basketball.

Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Wrestling Scholarship

In 2008, Russ and Ann Gerdin extended their Hawkeye legacy with the largest athletic scholarship gift in University history: a $5 million commitment to establish the Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Athletic Scholarship Fund. As part of that gift, the Gerdin Wrestling Scholarship was established. Russ Gerdin was the founder, and former president and chief executive officer of Coralville-based trucking company Heartland Express, Inc. Russ passed away in 2011. The Gerdins have supported the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center, the UI Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the J. Hayden Fry Center for Prostate Cancer Research, the aforementioned athletic scholarships, and the renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

Donald W. and Marilyn Heineking Wrestling Scholarship

The Heineking Wrestling Scholarship was established in 2003. Since that time, additional Heineking scholarships have been established in women's basketball, volleyball, softball, baseball, football and men's track/cross country, along with a men's basketball manager's scholarship. Don is a 1958 UI business graduate and former president of Security State Bank in Hubbard, IA. He is a member of the UI Foundation Board of Directors, the Johnson County I-Club Board of Directors and the National I-Club Board of Directors (honorary) and a member of the Iowa Scholarship Fund Board of Directors. Don lives in Iowa City and is a member of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation. Marilyn Heineking passed away in February of 2004.

Robert G. and Annalee Jacoby Hockridge Wrestling Scholarship

The Hockridge Scholarship was established by Bettendorf natives, Robert (Bob) and Annalee Jacoby (Jake) Hockridge in 2004. Both Bob and Jake are members of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation and have been loyal ticketholders and contributors since the early 1970s. Robert is a graduate of the UI with a degree in accounting. He was an executive vice president of finance at Brammer Manufacturing Company prior to his retirement in 1995. Jake received her degree in elementary education from UNI.

Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship

The Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship was established by Gary's family and friends as a tribute to the highly successful UI wrestler, coach and administrator following his death in 1998. Kurdelmeier graduated from the UI in 1959 where he was a Big Ten Champion, NCAA Champion and team captain for the Hawkeyes. He served as UI assistant wrestling coach from 1967-72 and then head coach from 1973-76. During his tenure, the Hawkeyes won three Big Ten Championships, two NCAA team titles and Kurdelmeier was named national coach of the year in 1975. He also secured the future of Iowa wrestling when he and former UI Athletic Director, Bump Elliott, hired Dan Gable as an assistant coach.

William and Kay Pitlik Wrestling Scholarship

Bill and Kay Pitlik of Cedar Rapids, IA, first created an endowed scholarship in 1998 to show their love for the Hawkeyes. Both graduated from UI, Kay in 1952 and Bill in 1953. The Pitliks owned and operated Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company for many years in Cedar Rapids. Kay is an avid Hawkeye fan, and prior to Bill's death in 2008, they also endowed scholarships to benefit women's basketball, field hockey and football (2). Kay continues to support UI athletics very generously, in Bill's honor, including a naming gift to the wrestling area in the newly renovated Carver Hawkeye Arena.

John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship

The John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1999 through a generous estate gift by the Sill family. John and Dorothy were both born and raised in small town Iowa. They were married in 1941 and managed a family farm until 1959. They later moved to Manchester, IA, where he was the manager of the Delaware County Mutual Insurance Association and opened his own insurance agency. They were very active in the community and proud supporters of the West Delaware and University of Iowa athletic teams. John passed away in 1989. Dorothy followed in 1999.

Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship

Gary and Camille Seamans established the Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship in 2001. It is a tribute to the aggressive, determined and dominating style that Hawkeye wrestlers have exhibited under head coaches Gary Kurdelmeier, Dan Gable, Jim Zalesky and Tom Brands. An Iowa City native, Gary received his B.S. in electrical engineering from the UI and enjoyed a successful career in the telecommunications industry, retiring as chairman and CEO of Westell Technologies in 1998. Camille is a native of Dekalb, IL, and is now retired from her role as director of human resources for the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation of Chicago. Gary is a past recipient of the UI Alumni Association's Distinguished Young Alumnus Award.

Iowa's Midlands History

Iowa has won a record 22 team titles in the 50-year history of the Midlands Championships. The Hawkeyes won their first team title in 1974, and proceeded to win nine of the next 11. Iowa also won team titles in 1990, 1992, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011.

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP SEASONS

No team has dominated collegiate wrestling like the University of Iowa Hawkeyes since the mid 1970s. Iowa captured nine straight NCAA titles from 1978-86 and has won 23 of the last 39. During that span Iowa boasts 250 All-Americans and 68 individual champions. Following are summaries of Iowa's 23 NCAA championship seasons.

1975

Iowa posted an undefeated dual season (17-0-1), set a school mark for wins and won its first NCAA title. The team had a school-record five All-Americans, national champs in Chuck Yagla and Dan Holm, and four dual shutouts.

1976

Iowa won its second straight NCAA title and captured 14 of 15 duals. A school-record three Hawkeyes (Brad Smith, Chuck Yagla and Chris Campbell) won NCAA titles. Yagla won his second straight title and was the meet's Outstanding Wrestler. Iowa won the title by almost 40 points and amassed a national record 123 1/4 points.

1978

The Hawkeyes started their nine-year string of national championships and were 15-1 in duals. Iowa's one-half point margin of victory at the NCAA meet gave the Hawkeyes their third title in four years. This team was the first in college history to win the national championship without an individual champion.

1979

Coach Dan Gable's first undefeated and untied (19-0-0) team included NCAA champs Bruce Kinseth and Randy Lewis. Kinseth, who had a school-record 23 pins, was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet. He pinned all four opponents at Big Tens and all five at nationals.

1980

Iowa won its third straight national title with a school-record eight all-Americans, including NCAA champions Randy Lewis (134) and Ed Banach (177). A 34-match dual winning streak was snapped by Cal-Poly, 27-12.

1981

The winningest team (21-1) in Iowa annals boasted nine All-Americans and seven Big Ten champs. Brothers Ed and Lou Banach won NCAA titles. The 10-man lineup had an overall record of 302-45-2. Iowa won the NCAA title by 29 1/2 points.

1982

Three NCAA champions – Barry Davis, Jim Zalesky and Pete Bush – paced the undefeated (16-0-1) national titlists. Davis set the Iowa season mark for wins with 46. The Hawkeyes had eight All-Americans and piled up a record 131 3/4 points at the NAAs.

1983

Iowa set a Big Ten record with nine league champs, compiled a 17-1 dual record and won a sixth consecutive NCAA crown. Iowa had nine All-Americans, a tournament record. Ed Banach won his third NCAA title in four years. Carver-Hawkeye Arena opened its doors with a 35-7 victory over Oklahoma.

1984

The Hawkeyes were 16-1 in duals and won both NCAA and Big Ten titles. Jim Zalesky, named Outstanding Wrestler at the NAAs, posted his second straight undefeated campaign and closed his career with 89 straight wins. Five Hawkeyes made the national championship match.

1985

Gable's second perfect season record (18-0-0) was accomplished with nine All-Americans and eight Big Ten champions. Davis, who won his third NCAA title, earned Outstanding Wrestler. For the second year in a row, five Hawkeyes wrestled in NCAA title matches.

1986

The Hawkeyes' record-tying ninth straight national team title was a record-shattering performance. Iowa set all-time NCAA records for points scored (158), margin of victory (73.25) and national champs (five)! Marty Kistler was the Hawkeyes' third straight NCAA Outstanding Wrestler award winner. Six wrestlers won at least 30 matches. The ninth straight NCAA championship tied the all-time record for consecutive titles.

1991

Iowa regained the national title that had eluded it since 1986, crowning nine All-Americans at the NCAA meet in Iowa City. Tom Brands (134) won his second straight title and was joined on the victory stand by Mark Reiland (167). Tom Brands ended the year with a perfect 45-0 record. Iowa's team total of 157 was just one shy of the NCAA record, set by Iowa in 1986. The Hawkeyes won their 18th straight Big Ten title.

1992

Gable's third perfect season (16-0-0) was accomplished by nine All-Americans, including NCAA champs Terry Brands, Tom Brands, and Troy Steiner. Tom Brands won his third consecutive NCAA title and was named Outstanding Wrestler. The Hawkeyes won their 19th straight Big Ten crown (6 champs) and second straight NCAA title. The Iowa-Iowa State dual meet (a 29-8 Iowa victory) drew an NCAA record 15,291 fans in Iowa City.

1993

Iowa rebounded from a midseason slump to win a third straight NCAA title and 20th consecutive Big Ten title. The Hawkeyes fell from the top of the Amateur Wrestling News poll with a 24-20 loss to Nebraska at the National Duals in Lincoln, NE, in late January, but regrouped to go 8-0 down the stretch. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-America honors, headlined by national champs Lincoln McClravy and Terry Steiner. Steiner was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet, and his brother Troy was selected Big Ten Athlete of the Year. Gable was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the first time.

1995

The Hawkeyes won their 15th NCAA title and 22nd consecutive Big Ten title while posting an undefeated dual meet record (14-0). Nine Hawkeyes were named to the All-America team for the sixth time in school history. The All-Americans were Ray Brinzer, Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness, Lincoln McClravy, Mike Mena, Matt Nerem, Joel Sharratt, Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick.

1996

Iowa finished its second consecutive dual meet season undefeated, posting a 17-0 record. The Hawkeyes won their 23rd consecutive Big Ten title and their 16th national title. Gable was named Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year and sophomore Mark Ironside was selected Big Ten Wrestler of the Year. Seniors Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick and sophomore Joe Williams all won their first NCAA titles. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-American honors, including Lee Fullhart, Ironside, Mike Mena, Mike Uker, Weber, Williams and Zadick.

1997

The Hawkeyes scored an NCAA record 170 team points en route to their 17th national title in Dan Gable's final season at Iowa head coach. Iowa crowned five national champions (Jessie Whitmer, Mark Ironside, Lincoln McClravy, Joe Williams and Lee Fullhart), and eight All-Americans. McClravy was named Outstanding Wrestler of the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes also won their 24th consecutive Big Ten title, and Ironside was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year for the second consecutive year.

1998

Led by head coach Jim Zalesky, the Hawkeyes won their 25th consecutive Big Ten title and their 18th national title. Seniors Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness and Joe Williams all won Big Ten and NCAA individual titles. Ironside was named Big Ten wrestler of the Year, McGinness was selected Outstanding Wrestler of the Big Ten meet and Williams garnered Outstanding Wrestler honors at the NCAA meet. Junior Lee Fullhart, freshman Eric Juergens and sophomore Wes Hand earned All-America honors.

1999

Iowa won their eighth NCAA title in the 1990's and their 19th overall at an exciting national meet in University Park, PA. The Hawkeyes' two-point victory margin was the closest in 20 years. Sophomores Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams each won their first national titles, while sophomore Eric Juergens and seniors Lee Fullhart and Jamie Heidt earned All-America honors. Heidt, Schwab and Williams all won Big Ten titles.

2000

The Hawkeyes won seven consecutive matches, scoring 23 1/2 points, in the consolation round to come from behind and win their sixth consecutive NCAA Championship in St. Louis, MO. Iowa crowned one individual national champion in junior 133-pounder Eric Juergens, while juniors Jody Strittmatter, Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams, sophomore Mike Zadick and senior Wes Hand earned All-America honors. The Hawkeyes went 18-0 in duals, and recaptured the conference team title. Big Ten individual champs were Strittmatter, Juergens, Schwab and Williams.

After an eight-year absence, the Hawkeyes regained the top spot on the NCAA Championship podium by winning the school's 21st national title. The team crowned two individual champions - senior Mark Perry (165) and sophomore Brent Metcalf (149) - and had seven All-Americans. Iowa won its 32nd Big Ten title and went 21-1 in dual competition and 8-0 in Big Ten duals. Head Coach Tom Brands was named Coach of the Year by the NWCA, W.I.N. Magazine and the Big Ten. Metcalf was named the Dan Hodge Trophy winner, the Jesse Owens Big Ten Male Athlete of the Year, Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA and Big Ten Championships and Big Ten Wrestler of the Year.

Despite crowning no individual champions, the Hawkeyes collected their second straight team title at the 2009 NCAA Championships in St. Louis, MO. Iowa scored 96.5 points, edging runner-up Ohio State by 4.5 points, to record its 22nd NCAA team title. It's the closest margin of victory since Iowa won the 1999 team title by two points. It also marks only the second time in school history the Hawkeyes have won the NCAA title without an individual champion. Iowa also accomplished that feat in 1978. The Hawkeyes had a total of five All-Americans in juniors Brent Metcalf (149-2nd), Daniel Dennis (133-7th), Ryan Morningstar (165-3rd), Phillip Keddy (184-4th) and Dan Erikson (Hwt.-4th). The Hawkeyes posted a perfect 24-0 dual meet record, going 8-0 in Big Ten duals, and won their 33rd Big Ten team title. Iowa also set the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 15,955 when it hosted Iowa State at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Iowa closed out the 2009-10 season on the winner's stand, bringing the Big Ten and NCAA team trophies back to Iowa City. Iowa won its 23rd NCAA and 34th Big Ten titles while crowning three NCAA champions, eight All-Americans and two Big Ten champions. The team was undefeated at 23-0 in dual competition, marking the 13th perfect season in school history. Iowa was also 11-0 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena and 8-0 in Big Ten duals, winning its third straight conference regular season title. Iowa won the 2009 Midlands and 2010 NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Division I team titles, ending the season on a 61 dual-match winning streak and shutting out eight opponents - both of which are school records. Seniors Brent Metcalf and Jay Borschel, and redshirt freshman Matt McDonough won individual NCAA titles, while seniors Daniel Dennis, Dan Erikson, Phillip Keddy and Ryan Morningstar, and sophomore Montell Marion each earned All-America honors. Borschel and Erikson were Iowa's two Big Ten champions. McDonough was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and Head Coach Tom Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

The Hawkeyes won their 23rd national team title at the 2010 NCAA Championships in Omaha. Iowa scored 134.5 points while crowning three individual champions -- seniors Brent Metcalf (149) and Jay Borschel (174), and redshirt freshman Matt McDonough (125).

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

SUCCESS OFF THE MAT

"Wrestling for Iowa and Coach Gable taught me significant life lessons, such as hard work, dedication and perseverance. In addition to these tenets, wrestling has instilled in me the ability to read people, whether it be on the mat or in the courtroom. The importance of this skill translates easily from the mat to all facets of the professional/business world. Beyond fulfilling my childhood dream of wrestling for Iowa, I will always be grateful for those life lessons and skills, which I use daily to continue my success off the mat."

Jeff McGinness

Attorney with McGinness Law Firm

Three-time All-American, two-time NCAA Champion and NWCA all-academic team member, 1994 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, 1998 Big Ten Championships Outstanding Wrestler, Hawkeye letterwinner in 1994-96, 1998

"To be successful in wrestling, you must have a strong desire, good work ethic and be surrounded by good people with similar goals. The Iowa wrestling room is the ideal setting for this success. The same principles apply to the business world. Without hard work and good people, you will have a tough time succeeding in the business world. The Iowa wrestling program gave me the background and contacts to be successful on and off the mat."

Mark Reiland

M.R.S. Appraisals L.C.

Head Wrestling Coach at Iowa City West H.S.

NCAA Champion at 167 pounds in 1991, two-time All-American, letterwinner from 1989-92

"Success in athletics comes with planning, hard work and discipline. Iowa wrestling has been at the top because they work the hardest, they are disciplined and they plan to succeed. As a husband, a father and an investment representative, all of those traits help me to reach my goals on a daily basis. I am very grateful for the opportunities given to me in my years as a Hawkeye, and I am very happy that the tradition continues today."

Mark Sindlinger

Investment Representative with Edward Jones

Two-time All-American and two-time Big Ten Champion at heavyweight, letterwinner from 1985-88 with the wrestling team and 1983-86 with the football team, started at center for the Hawkeyes for three seasons (1984-86), two-time honorable mention all-Big Ten pick by UPI and AP in football

"While at the University of Iowa I learned what it means to compete - to step onto the mat and wrestle not just to participate, but to wrestle to win. I learned what it means to be disciplined enough to train in such a way as to maximize the chances for victory. Now as a pastor I see people wrestling with life and death. People who are dealing with all the difficulties that come with life. My job is to equip people to run the race of life to win, not just to compete."

Brooks Simpson

Pastor of Grace Community Church in North Liberty, IA Big Ten Champion and All-American at 190 pounds in 1990, Hawkeye letterwinner from 1987-90

"My training to be an orthopedist and my current practice responsibilities are often quite demanding, both physically and mentally. The work ethic and discipline I learned participating in the Iowa wrestling program has helped me deal with these demands tremendously. In fact, I don't know any aspect of my life, including my roles as a husband and father, that has not benefited from the discipline I developed at Iowa."

Mark Mysnyk

Orthopedic Surgeon and Specialist

Hawkeye letterwinner in 1975-76, 78-79

"Basically the price to wrestle at Iowa is everything you have to give, and nothing less. After graduating I have continued to strive for only the best in all my endeavors. This commitment and drive has allowed me as a person and my photography studio to become very successful. When a client hires me they know that they will get nothing but my greatest effort and it shows in the creativity and quality of work I produce."

Ben Shirk

Owner of Shirk Photography

All-American at 165 pounds in 2001, three-time academic all-Big Ten honoree, Hawkeye letterwinner in 1999-2002

"Iowa wrestling was and still is very beneficial to me. Before I wrestled at Iowa I was in awe of the program. When I wrestled there I lived it and was in awe of my coaches, teammates, fans and the amount of success that was accomplished. What I learned, and still use everyday of my life, is that a high level success has to come from the heart. Myself, teammates, and coaches were able to achieve the goals that we set out to conquer, not just from hard work and dedication, but from living for success and dying with failure. It wasn't just a sport, it was life. I owe great gratitude to Tom Brands and Dan Gable for making me successful on and off the mat and for who I am today. I look forward to watching and living many more successful years with Iowa Wrestling."

Mark Ironside

Owner of Ironside Apparel and Promotion

Four time All-American, two-time NCAA Champion, 10th wrestler in Big Ten history to win four conference titles, three-time Big Ten Wrestler of the Year, Hawkeye letterwinner in 1995-98

"The fact that I experienced wrestling for Coach Gable and the University of Iowa, will always be a dream come true for me. Coach Gable taught me what it takes to be successful in every facet of life. Life is a wrestling match. If you possess discipline, accountability, sacrifice, and a good work ethic, anything you put your mind to can be achieved. These are just a few of the wonderful attributes one can attain through the great sport of wrestling. The very sport I am fortunate enough to be coaching at Davenport Assumption. No matter how much time I put back into the sport of wrestling, I can never repay the sport for all the 'tools for life' it has provided me."

Pete Bush

Owner of McCarthy-Bush Development

Head Wrestling Coach at Davenport Assumption H.S. NCAA Champion at 190 pounds in 1982, three-time Big Ten Champion, 1984 team co-captain, Hawkeye letterwinner in 1980-82, 1984

"I try and pass the lessons that were beneficial to me in my life to the athletes I now coach. Iowa wrestling gave me so many of those lessons. My time in Iowa was a dream come true and a tremendous experience for me that I will cherish forever. The Iowa wrestling program taught me so much about work ethic, dedication and the type of lifestyle that you have to live in order to succeed. The University of Iowa wrestling program has a passion for the sport of wrestling that is unmatched by any other. I am so grateful for the coaches, friends and people I met in Iowa City."

Jody Strittmatter

Two-time All-American and Big Ten Champion at 125 pounds in 2000-01, Outstanding wrestler at 2000 Big Ten Championships, Hawkeye letterwinner in 2000-01

"Wrestling at the University of Iowa emphasized the importance of not only hard work, but work with a goal in mind as well as surrounding yourself with the right people. Having a goal to focus on gives a purpose to the time and effort put forth each day. Knowing you have people around you that have your best interest in mind and want you to succeed gives confidence that you can reach your goals and make the work more enjoyable. These are things that carry into all areas of life, not just sports."

Tyler Nixt

Senior Financial Analyst, UIHC

All-American at 174 pounds, four-time academic all-Big Ten honoree, CoSIDA academic All-American and NWCA all-academic team member, Hawkeye letterwinner from 2001-04

"The Iowa Wrestling System preaches and implements life's most important lessons: relentless preparation, unwavering confidence, execution under pressure, accountability, and above all, the strength to endeavor again in the face of adversity. Upon graduation from law school, I sat for the Iowa Bar Exam - a three day written examination - with the same rock solid confidence with which I entered the NCAA Wrestling Tournament. My experience at the University of Iowa has tempered me for life's ongoing challenges. I am a better attorney, husband, father and person for having passed through the doors of the Dan Gable Wrestling Complex."

ing passed through the doors of the Dan Gable Wrestling Complex."

Jessman Smith

Two-time All-American, 2003 Big Ten Champion at 184 pounds, four-time academic all-Big Ten honoree, NWCA all-academic team member, Hawkeye letterwinner in 2000-03

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Head Coach Gary Kurdelmeier and Assistant Coach Dan Gable, both in their third years at Iowa, were optimistic at the beginning of the 1974-75 season, hoping to defend their Big Ten team title and post a winning dual season. The duo not only accomplished those goals, but added the first NCAA team title in school history and the school's ninth undefeated season (17-0-1) to their list of accomplishments. The Hawkeyes also set then-school records for most all-Americans (5) and most dual wins (17) in a season. Dan Holm and Chuck Yagla each won their first NCAA individual title.

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

ALL-TIME RESULTS

The 1982-83 Hawkeyes set records for most Big Ten champions (9), largest victory margin at the Big Ten Championships (118.5), all-Americans (9), and largest point total (155) and victory margin (53) at the NCAA meet. Senior twin brothers Ed (190) and Lou Banach (Hwt.) won their second NCAA individual titles, making them only the second set of twins in NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships history to win individual titles in the same season two straight years.

IOWA WRESTLING

2013-14 MEDIA GUIDE

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Iowa celebrated Dan Gable's 10th season as head coach by winning its ninth consecutive national team title at the 1986 NCAA Championships held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. It equaled the longest streak of national titles won by any school, in any sport, also held by the Yale golf team (1905-13) and the Southern Cal track team (1935-43). The Hawkeyes also set NCAA records for total points (158), victory margin (73.25) and number of national champions (5), and tied the record for most finalists (6).

Iowa wrestling fans love their Hawkeyes, and in 2012-13 the Hawkeyes led the nation in average attendance for the seventh straight year, posting a season average of 8,764 fans per home dual. Penn State was a distant second with a 6,412 season attendance average. The Hawkeyes also hosted the dual that drew the season's largest crowd when 15,077 watched No. 3 Iowa defeat No. 1 Penn State at Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Feb. 1, 2013.

Iowa's ability to draw crowds on the road has helped 10 schools set dual attendance records. They include Minnesota (15,646 - 2002), Iowa State (14,507 - 1982), Penn State (11,245 - 1996), Northern Iowa (10,200 - 1976), North Dakota State (6,307 - 1992), Cal Davis (5,150 - 2005), Pennsylvania (5,109 - 2002), Wisconsin (4,800 - 1978), Cleveland State (3,620 - 1987) and Illinois (3,573 - 2005).

Iowa has been a part of the 49 of the top 50 largest recorded dual meet crowds, helping set the national attendance record 11 times. Thirty-one of the top 50 matchups were with intra-state rival Iowa State.

CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA

The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex was a part of the $47 million revitalization and expansion of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The complex features an extended training space, a new locker room, new coaches locker room, student-athlete video center, and a new office suite.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena has been the home of Iowa wrestling since 1983. The facility is one of the finest of its kind in the world, and it seats 15,077 fans for a dual wrestling meet. The arena is named after the late Roy J. Carver, a long-time friend and contributor to the University. Carver had a love for Iowa athletics and a lifelong affection for wrestling. Carver died in 1981 at the age of 71.

Iowa's basketball and volleyball squads also compete in the bowl-shaped arena. The multi-purpose building has also been the site of banquets, concerts, exhibition shows and graduation ceremonies. Besides the main floor, where dual meets are staged, the arena boasts one of the best wrestling workout areas in the nation. The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex features three mats, a locker room, sauna, weight-lifting facilities and retractable bleachers.

The Board of Regents, State of Iowa approved the schematic design, project description, budget, and financing plan for a $47 million addition and revitalization of the arena that was completed in 2011. The Carver-Hawkeye Arena – Addition and Renovation Project added a practice facility immediately north of the arena for use by the Hawkeye men and women's basketball and volleyball programs; renovation of the practice, fitness and weight-training facilities utilized by the wrestling program; renovation and expansion of other fitness and weight-training space in the arena utilized by the majority of Iowa's 24 sports; the renovation and expansion of locker rooms in the facility; and the renovation of existing and the creation of new office, meeting, and storage space for use by administrative and coaching staff of the Athletics Department. The project began in the fall of 2009 and the UI Department of Athletics moved back into the facility in July, 2011.

The revitalization of the arena also extends into spaces used by the general public on game days and nights. This includes renovation of select concessions and restroom facilities, and the creation of hospitality and meeting spaces. There are also club facilities for fans of the Hawkeyes who choose to participate in a variety of premium seating options similar to that which are available in the Paul W. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick Stadium.

The Hawkeyes have a .915 winning percentage at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa's 205-19 all-time mark in the building includes a record 10 home triumphs during the 1986 season. The Hawkeyes have recorded 20 undefeated seasons in Carver-Hawkeye, with the most recent (9-0) occurring in 2012-13. The first event held in the arena was a wrestling meet on January 3, 1983. Iowa beat Oklahoma 35-7. Iowa all-American Tim Riley won the first match contested in the arena.

On Dec. 6, 2008, Iowa set the NCAA wrestling dual meet attendance record when 15,955 fans saw the Hawkeyes defeat Iowa State, 20-15, in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

In all, the Hawkeyes have hosted several conference and national tournaments. Three Big Ten (1983, 1994 and 2005) and four NCAA Championships (1986, 1991, 1995 and 2001) were held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, with Iowa winning the team title five of the seven times. The total attendance figures for the 1995 (80,389), 2001 (79,477) and 1991 (70,163) NCAA Championships rank ninth, 11th and 15th, respectively among NCAA Wrestling Championships. Carver-Hawkeye Arena has also held the 1984 U.S. Olympic trials, the annual N.W.C.A. All-Star Wrestling Classic in 1993 and 1996, and the Cliff Keen/N.W.C.A. National Duals in 1998 and 1999.

The award winning facility hosted the 2012 USA Wrestling Olympic Team Trials. Nearly 300 wrestlers competed for a spot on Team USA's men's freestyle, women's freestyle, and Greco-Roman Olympic teams at Carver-Hawkeye Arena April 21-22.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS GARY BARTA

Gary Barta

Director of Athletics

Now in his eighth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa, Gary Barta continues to provide the UI's almost 900 student-athletes, coaches, administrators, and support staff the strong leadership and strategic vision that is the foundation for the Hawkeyes' success both today and in the future.

Barta often notes, "Hope is not a strategy," and evidence of his commitment to planning and execution is his second strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department. The latest document addresses the next five years for the Hawkeyes and is built on the same core tenets contained in the first: Win. Graduate. Do it right.

Under Barta's direction, the UI continues to put into place the infrastructure that will provide the foundation for competitive success. The 2012-13 basketball season provides an outstanding example of the impact state-of-the-art facilities can have on a program. Boosted by a new practice facility and an enhanced strength and conditioning facility – two pieces of Barta's first strategic plan for the UI – Fran McCaffery's Iowa men's basketball team won 25 games and advanced to the championship game of the 2013 National Invitation Tournament. Lisa Bluder's Iowa women's basketball team earned its sixth consecutive invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

Another example of investments made under Barta's direction that have helped Iowa turn the corner competitively is the UI men's golf program. Barta increased his commitment to the sport when he hired native Iowan Mark Hankins, who had a vision for the program that included a new practice facility. Barta, Hankins and the Hawkeyes celebrated the opening of the new $6 million Hoak Family Golf Facility in February, just three months before Hankins' nationally ranked squad made its fifth straight appearance in the national regional championships. The Hawkeyes have advanced to the NCAA Championships in three of the last five seasons.

Women's basketball and men's golf are two of the eight UI programs that participated in national championship competition in 2012-13. At the top of the list was Tom Brands' wrestling program, which crowned one national champion, had four wrestlers earn All-America honors, and finished fourth nationally at the end of a season that included a Big Ten Conference Dual Meet championship.

JD Reive's men's gymnastics team had three individuals earn All-America honors after finishing fifth at the national meet. Larissa Libby's women's gymnastics program advanced to NCAA regional competition for the sixth straight season.

The Iowa field hockey program under the direction of Tracy Greisbaum advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament over the last nine years and 22nd in school history – a total that ranks No. 1 among the Hawkeyes' Big Ten Conference peers. Two Hawkeyes were named All-Americans.

Iowa's 200 and 400 medley relay teams and backstroke Grant Betulius earned All-America honors while leading Marc Long's men's swimming and diving team to a 32nd place at the national championship. Larry Wiecezorek's UI track and field program crowned eight All-Americans en route to placing 35th at the national outdoor championship.

Interest in the Hawkeyes continues to soar. Sellouts for home games of the football team at historic Kinnick Stadium and a waiting list for access to the premium seating areas inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box are the norm. So, too, is Iowa leading the country in attendance at home wrestling events -- Iowa averaged just under 9,000 fans per home dual match in 2012-13 – and being ranked among the nation's Top 20 in attendance in women's basketball.

Success on the court has also resulted in spinning turnstiles for home games of the UI men's basketball team. The Hawkeyes' run to New York City's Madison Square Garden and the NIT championship game included a pair of sold out games on Mediacom Court in 15,400-seat Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Those two sellouts, paired with three regular season sellouts, helped to push Iowa's total average per game to 13,625, an improvement of more than 1,700 per game that has pushed the Hawkeyes into the nation's Top 25 in per game attendance.

Under Barta's leadership, Iowa has also embraced new technologies and that, too, has paid dividends: Iowa ranks among the nation's Top 10 in Facebook "friends" and Twitter "followers." The UI also delivers Hawk Talk Daily, a daily e-newsletter, and Hawk Talk Monthly, a monthly e-magazine, to more than 70,000 friends of the UI and fans of the Hawkeyes to complement the news, information, video and photography available on hawkeyesports.com, the official world wide web site of the Iowa Hawkeyes and the UI's anchor in the digital world.

Academically, Iowa continues to achieve at pace that sets the bar across the state and competes favorably with its peers in the Big Ten Conference. UI student-athletes set new records for academic achievement, according to data released by the NCAA in October 2012, as part of its annual report on the work in the classroom by student-athletes across the country.

Student-athletes that entered the UI in the fall of 2005 graduated at a rate of 77 percent, according to the NCAA. That mark – which uses the federal government benchmark for graduation success – is three points better than the 2011 report when Iowa tied the previous school record of 74 percent set first in 1994-95. It is also six points better than the UI student body and 12 points better than that achieved all by student-athletes nationally.

The UI also set a new record by posting a score of 87 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate" or GSR, one point better than what was posted in 86. It marked the seventh time in the eight years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

The GSR's for football (82), men's basketball (89), and women's basketball (100) all bested the national averages in their sport: 68, 65, and 86, respectively.

The NCAA's Academic Progress Rate report for 2012-13 revealed that for the fourth consecutive year all of Iowa's 24 sports programs were comfortably above the 930 threshold that signals a red flag for the NCAA. The highlights of Iowa's report include APR's for 18 of Iowa's programs that were better than the national average in that sport, including football, men's basketball, and wrestling. The APR for Iowa's football program – 961 – was an all-time best.

As noted, Barta has been the driving force behind substantial investments in the facilities used by Iowa's more than 850 talented male and female student-athletes. When the Iowa football program moves into its new $54 million operations center in late summer 2014, the UI will have completed more than $220 million of construction and renovation work over the previous eight years.

That list of projects includes a $47 million facelift and addition to Iowa's award-winning Carver-Hawkeye Arena, a project that directly impacted 23 of Iowa's 24 sports programs, two phases of improvements to the facilities used daily by Iowa's football program – construction of a new indoor practice facility and renovation of the Kenyon Outdoor Practice facility in Phase I, and construction of a state-of-the-art operations center in Phase II, a $9 million investment in scoreboards, ribbon boards, and video walls at historic Kinnick Stadium, construction of the aforementioned $6 million Hoak Family Golf Facility at Iowa's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course, turf replacement at Grant field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program, resurfacing of the courts at the Klotz Tennis Center, the home of Iowa's men's and women's tennis programs, and the construction of a new indoor turf facility.

On the horizon for Barta, from a facilities perspective, is the planning and construction of the "Hawkeye Campus." Located on the western edge of the UI campus, immediately west of Finkbine Golf Course and adjacent to the UI's Athletics Hall of Fame, the practice and competition sites for Iowa's soccer and field hockey programs, and the UI Sports Medicine facility, and near the UI's Ashton Cross Country Course, the Hawkeye Campus is envisioned to be the new home for Iowa's track and field, softball, and baseball programs.

Another favorite saying of Barta's is, "Vision without resources is irrelevant." Over the course of his career he has been directly involved in raising hundreds of millions of dollars in support of intercollegiate athletics. This task has remained a primary focus during his tenure at Iowa, where private support for the Hawkeyes continues to be a critical piece to Iowa's ability to remain one of a handful of NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics programs that are 100 percent self-sustaining financially.

Under Barta's leadership -- and thanks to a talented athletics development staff -- the UI has seen year-over-year improvement in annual giving in spite of the difficult economic environment. In addition, under Barta's direction, the UI generated more than $20 million of philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support for the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena and more than $30 million of support for phases I and II of the projects designed to position Iowa's football program for success in the next decade.

The UI also generated the $2 million in private support necessary to fully fund the Hawkeyes' new practice facility for its men's and women's golf programs. Philanthropic support will also play a critical role in the development of the Hawkeye Campus.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends far beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his first six years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, included the United Way of Johnson County and Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why he is currently overseeing a comprehensive review of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and has worked with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (15) and a daughter, Madison (13). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

IOWA HAWKEYE TRADITIONS

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized university life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring (Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.
